

GUI Testing Checklist

Colors used in the web application

- Check the colors for the hyperlinks.
- Background color for all the pages should be tested.
- Color for the warning message should be checked.

Content used in the web application

- Font on the whole website should be same according the requirements.
- Check that content is properly aligned or not.
- All the labels should be proper aligned
- Check all the content for respective words to be in lower and upper case.
- Check all the error message on the screen and should not have any spelling mistake.

Images used in the web application

- Check all the graphics should be proper aligned.
- Check for the broken images all over.
- Check the size for the graphics used or uploaded.
- Check all the banners and their size.
- Check the buttons for the respective command like size, font and font size.

Navigation in the application

- All the tabs should be loaded on time.
- Tabs should be displayed in sequence.
- All the tabs from the left to right should be correct according to the requirements.
- Check scrollbar is getting displayed if required.
- Check all the links given in the sitemap and see for broken links.

Usability in the application

- Check the font size and it should be readable.
- Check the spelling for all the fields that they are prompting properly or not.
- Check whole website's look and feel.
- Test the website in all resolutions like 640×480 etc. On every Screen

Shortcut keys / Hot Keys

Control Shortcut Keys